Community support scheme

Can we help you?

Scheme information

Through our Community support scheme we provide financial assistance to a wide range of local organisations involved in improving community life. We pride ourselves on being a local Society working with and for the benefit of our local communities. We invite applications from community groups in need of financial help, which are reviewed in May and November each calendar year.

Awards typically range from £100-£500. Applications for assistance must include specific details of how any award would be spent.

Scheme policy

Our Community support scheme only considers applications that benefit the local community and favour projects with an enduring value which:

- Promote and encourage sporting activity
- Promote and encourage activity in the arts
- Support education and development
- Benefit our environment (e.g. conservation)

Application forms are available from any branch or from our website:

www.newbury.co.uk/about-us/community-and-charity/

Please send your completed form together with any additional information to:
